FULTON BALLOTS CHEERED

Tumult in House Becomes so Great
That the Speaker Threatened to Clear the Lobby Unless Quiet Was Restored.

SALEM, Jan. 19.—George E. Chamberlain, Governor of Oregon, is United States Senator-elect from this State. Out of a possible 90 votes he received the ballots of 53 of the members of the two Houses. The vote today was cast in by the two houses in separate session. Tomorrow formality of the meeting in joint session and canvassing the votes will take place.

The state house was crowded for hours before the hour for voting was to begin at noon and from the time the balloting began there was much demonstration in both houses. In the house the tumult became so great the speaker was compelled to issue orders that unless quiet was restored he would clear the lobby.

Every time a vote was cast for Chamberlain there was prolonged applause and such was the case on several occasions when a ballot was cast for Senator Fulton. The ballots cast for the other candidates received no notice.

A good many of the pledged legislators, prefaced their votes with explanations that they did so under protest, but were bound by pledges to the people, though their personal preference was a man of their own party. The detailed vote follows:

Senate—Chamberlain 19, Fulton 7, Cake 3, Bean 1.

House—Chamberlain 34, Cake 14, Fulton 12.

Totals—Chamberlain 53, Fulton 19, Cake 17, Bean 1; total, 90.

When the result was known, Governor Chamberlain's reception room in the state house were thronged with those who wished to congratulate him. The governor appeared well pleased with the result. Within a few minutes after the election was over, dozens of messages of congratulations poured in on the Governor from all parts of the State.

Later in the day, Governor Chamberlain stated to the Associated Press that he had made no promises to anyone at any time as to resigning. He declared that he will be present in Washington to qualify as a Senator on the first occasion when there is anything for the Senate to do.

A measure was introduced in the house today having for its purpose repealing of initiative measure instructing legislature to vote for the people's choice for United States Senator. This is the compulsory measure passed by the people last June and it is contended that similar measures have been declared unconstitutional by federal courts. Senator Bingham has introduced a bill providing that title guarantee companies shall deposit a bond with the secretary of state of $50,000. The Senate today adopted a resolution to have an examination made of the books of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition commission from this State to see what disposal has been made of the appropriation of $100,000 made by the last legislature.
